

Contribution ID: 324

Type: Poster

Investigating some technical improvements to glueball calculations.

Wednesday, 15 July 2015 18:30 (2h 30m)

Preliminary results for the effect of open boundary conditions on the masses of glueballs and the probability distributions of glueball correlators, in quenched QCD, are presented. Initial results from glueball correlators computed on unquenched ensembles downloaded from the ILDG data grid are reported.

Primary author: Dr MCNEILE, Craig (Plymouth University)

Co-authors: Dr RAGO, Antonio (Plymouth University); Prof. LUCINI, Biagio (Swansea)

Presenter: Dr MCNEILE, Craig (Plymouth University)

Session Classification: Poster Session

Track Classification: Hadron Spectroscopy and Interactions